

Course: Introduction to Theology
Series: Building Biblical Theology
Discussion Forum Four: Contours of New Testament Biblical Theology
Instructor: Dr. Richard L. Pratt, Jr.

- 1. Why do biblical theologians study the Old and New Testaments separately? (0:10)
- 2. What do biblical theologians do with the New Testament? (10:40)
- 3. Did biblical writers contradict each other? (14:40)
- 4. How diverse are the theologies of the biblical writers? (19:00)
- 5. How do we discover the different theologies of the New Testament writers? (24:55)
- 6. What is eschatology? (37:45)
- 7. How did the doctrine of eschatology develop? (43:50)
- 8. Did the prophets ever predict things that did not come to pass? (47:55)
- 9. Why was John the Baptist surprised by Jesus' ministry? (50:55)
- 10. Will we be surprised by the details of Christ's return? (57:05)
- 11. Why didn't the end times unfold in the way the Old Testament prophets had predicted? (59:50)
- 12. Do historical contingencies continue to apply today? (1:05:25)
- 13. Has the new covenant come? (1:15:45)
- 14. Does the New Testament contain different eschatologies? (1:20:50)
- 15. What are some practical implications of biblical theology's focus on eschatology? (1:30:00)