

Course: Gospels and Acts
Series: The Book of Acts
Discussion Forum Two: Structure and Content
Instructor: Dr. Hans Bayer

- 1. Can supernatural events happen in real history? (0:15)
- 2. Are there dangers in interpreting and apply narratives? (4:10)
- 3. What strategies did ancient writers us to communicate? (8:15)
- 4. Why is Christianity so interested in history? (12:10)
- 5. Why were the Apostles words so important? (16:10)
- 6. Why are the summary statements in Acts so important? (19:40)
- 7. How did internal grown and tension interact? (21:50)
- 8. What are some practical strategies for interpreting Acts? (26:35)
- 9. Is the book of Acts a success story? (31:05)
- 10. How can Acts encourage Christians who suffer? (33:00)
- 11. What is the significance of Stephens' speech? (36:20)
- 12. How far should we go in pursuing reconciliation? (39:55)
- 13. How important is it to understand Luke's context? (44:35)
- 14. Do our circumstances reflect God's approval and disapproval? (48:35)
- 15. Why can't we just do what the Bible says? (53:15)
- 16. Is Jesus a significant character in the book of Acts? (57:15)
- 17. If the gospel is so simple, why is interpretation so complex? (1:01:15)