We breathe the same air, we touch the same surfaces, we depend on the same supply chains. We need the same masks, hand sanitizer, soap, and toilet paper. While each of us has been called to love and serve our neighbor by practicing social distancing, sharing goods, and checking in on each other, some of us have been called to special services like health care providers and grocery store clerks.

Our unique calling at Thirdmill is to provide Biblical Education. For the World. For Free. We have been asked to do that in new ways under these new circumstances. As you will see here, we continue to translate and distribute our materials in far away places like Malaysia, Russia, the Czech Republic, and Myanmar.

Our Director of Chinese Projects hosted a Training the Trainers seminar online for more than 70 Chinese pastors and church leaders in April. It has been encouraging to see how those who have been so greatly affected by COVID-19 are still eager to study God’s Word.

Also, right here in the U. S., our church partners have asked us to try a new format for small group Bible studies. We call it our “Study at Home” series. With the onset of social distancing requirements, we wanted to help provide an accessible online study. This first study is based on our series The Book of Hebrews. The eight sessions include a time to connect and reflect, a 15-minute video segment, discussion, and application questions. Dr. Kristi Woodall, an oncologist, joined a group and said, “I personally loved it as it had some academia, scripture, and fellowship. I am starving for all of the above.” To access this resource, visit thirdmill.org/Hebrews.

In a time when online learning is more important than we could have imagined just a few months ago, thank you for bringing Thirdmill to the world. To help us continue distributing theological education, visit thirdmill.org/donate.

We are thrilled to announce a new degree-pathway partnership with Tyrannus Seminary. An associate member of the Asia Theological Association (ATA), Tyrannus is a fully online program powered by Thirdmill curriculum in both Mandarin and English. The seminary takes its name from the Book of Acts when Paul and other leaders of the newly planted church in Ephesus had to find a new place to study the Scriptures together after their break with the synagogue. They chose Tyrannus Hall (see Acts 19:9). Recently, Dr. Paul Cheng, the founder and president of the seminary, wrote Dr. Pratt to report that over 500 students had signed up for classes this spring. Rejoice with us and pray for our brothers and sisters as they study the Scriptures online.

The COVID-19 pandemic has underscored how the fabric of our lives is interwoven with others. We breathe the same air, we touch the same surfaces, we depend on the same supply chains. We need the same masks, hand sanitizer, soap, and toilet paper. While each of us has been called to love and serve our neighbor by practicing social distancing, sharing goods, and checking in on each other, some of us have been called to special services like health care providers and grocery store clerks.

Our unique calling at Thirdmill is to provide Biblical Education. For the World. For Free. We have been asked to do that in new ways under these new circumstances. As you will see here, we continue to translate and distribute our materials in far away places like Malaysia, Russia, the Czech Republic, and Myanmar.

Our Director of Chinese Projects hosted a Training the Trainers seminar online for more than 70 Chinese pastors and church leaders in April. It has been encouraging to see how those who have been so greatly affected by COVID-19 are still eager to study God’s Word.

Also, right here in the U. S., our church partners have asked us to try a new format for small group Bible studies. We call it our “Study at Home” series. With the onset of social distancing requirements, we wanted to help provide an accessible online study.

This first study is based on our series The Book of Hebrews. The eight sessions include a time to connect and reflect, a 15-minute video segment, discussion, and application questions. Dr. Kristi Woodall, an oncologist, joined a group and said, “I personally loved it as it had some academia, scripture, and fellowship. I am starving for all of the above.” To access this resource, visit thirdmill.org/Hebrews.

In a time when online learning is more important than we could have imagined just a few months ago, thank you for bringing Thirdmill to the world. To help us continue distributing theological education, visit thirdmill.org/donate.

FROM THE FIELD

We enjoy Thirdmill study at home and in small Bible studies. What a blessing to be able to study good materials through you! Let us pray for one another as we are facing all kinds of challenges in this world.

- Tial and Annie Thanga
  Myanmar

Our U.S. church partners have asked us to try a new format for small group Bible studies. We call it our “Study at Home” series. With the onset of social distancing requirements, we are providing an accessible online study.

Our U.S. church partners have asked us to try a new format for small group Bible studies. We call it our “Study at Home” series. With the onset of social distancing requirements, we are providing an accessible online study.

TYRANNUS SEMINARY IN KUALA LUMPUR

We are thrilled to announce a new degree-pathway partnership with Tyrannus Seminary. An associate member of the Asia Theological Association (ATA), Tyrannus is a fully online program powered by Thirdmill curriculum in both Mandarin and English. The seminary takes its name from the Book of Acts when Paul and other leaders of the newly planted church in Ephesus had to find a new place to study the Scriptures together after their break with the synagogue. They chose Tyrannus Hall (see Acts 19:9). Recently, Dr. Paul Cheng, the founder and president of the seminary, wrote Dr. Pratt to report that over 500 students had signed up for classes this spring. Rejoice with us and pray for our brothers and sisters as they study the Scriptures online.

Tyrannus.online
Implementing Thirdmill

New Meaning during Quarantine

I want to say thank you all for your 14-day reading plans for Paul's letters from prison on The Bible App. I was talking with a friend who was getting frustrated with the idea of being home for 1-2 months, and the discussion led me to think of Paul under house arrest and his letters. Your five reading plans are an amazing opportunity for the world to connect, every 14 days, to the truths lived out in Paul's imprisonment and the freedom he has in Christ. Thank you for the resource.

— Brian Crumpler

You can find our YouVersion reading plans by searching “Thirdmill” on Bible.com under the section called “Plans.” YouVersion now offers 900 languages of the Bible. We offer plans in English, Spanish, and Arabic.

---

Evgeniy Kruzhkov, Rector

Bible Theological Seminary
Saint Petersburg, Russia

---

A Space for God during Quarantine in Zimbabwe

"In Zimbabwe, God has created space to be the Lord of our lives. For the first time in a long time, all self-promoting preachers of the 'Prosperity Gospel' are silenced and stopped in their tracks. They cannot preach without looking behind their shoulders, because it is obvious that that gospel does not make sense if they have taken Jesus' place of Lordship. Once in our lifetime as Zimbabweans, we do see Jesus clearly. We are all locked away with Jesus by our side in silent prayer, meditation, and deeper Bible reading. God be praised for creating space for Himself to be God in Zimbabwe."

— Jorum Mugari, Professor, Theological College of Zimbabwe

---

Where to Begin in Czech?

I started with Father Abraham (because) you never hear about the five-step outline of Abraham's life in Czech. No German wrote about it so nobody even knows about it. I wanted to begin with something to give them a taste and desire to learn. Then, when they are ready to find out more, they should also learn that what they are being taught at school is not the only absolute source of truth. I wanted the pastors and the pastors-to-be to see that there's no need to be ashamed to believe in the Bible.

— Simon, Czech translator
Implementing Thirdmill

"Last year we started to purposefully integrate Thirdmill materials into our curriculum. Our students represent extremely diverse communities - there are NINE TIMEZONES represented from Latvia to Vladivostok (close to Japan). Now because of the coronavirus pandemic, we continue teaching online... and we expect that Thirdmill materials will help us organize an effective and high-quality curriculum for discussion in small groups. Thank you for your care and your generous contribution to the education of church leaders of the Russian-speaking world."

Evgeniy Kruzhkov, Rector
Bible Theological Seminary
Saint Petersburg, Russia

A Space for God during Quarantine in Zimbabwe

"In Zimbabwe, God has created space to be the Lord of our lives. For the first time in a long time, all self-promoting preachers of the 'Prosperity Gospel' are silenced and stopped in their tracks. They cannot preach without looking behind their shoulders, because it is obvious that that gospel does not make sense if they have taken Jesus' place of Lordship. Once in our lifetime as Zimbabweans, we do see Jesus clearly. We are all locked away with Jesus by our side in silent prayer, meditation, and deeper Bible reading. God be praised for creating space for Himself to be God in Zimbabwe."

Jorhum Mugari, Professor, Theological College of Zimbabwe
We breathe the same air, we touch the same surfaces, we depend on the same supply chains. We need the same masks, hand sanitizer, soap, and toilet paper. While each of us has been called to love and serve our neighbor by practicing social distancing, sharing goods, and checking in on each other, some of us have been called to special services like health care providers and grocery store clerks.

Our unique calling at Thirdmill is to provide Biblical Education. For the World. For Free.

We have been asked to do that in new ways under these new circumstances. As you will see here, we continue to translate and distribute our materials in far-away places like Malaysia, Russia, the Czech Republic, and Myanmar.

Our Director of Chinese Projects hosted a Training the Trainers seminar online for more than 70 Chinese pastors and church leaders in April. It has been encouraging to see how those who have been so greatly affected by COVID-19 are still eager to study God’s Word.

Also, right here in the U. S., our church partners have asked us to try a new format for small group Bible studies. We call it our “Study at Home” series. With the onset of social distancing requirements, we wanted to help provide an accessible online study. This first study is based on our series The Book of Hebrews. The eight sessions include a time to connect and reflect, a 15-minute video segment, discussion, and application questions. Dr. Kristi Woodall, an oncologist, joined a group and said, “I personally loved it as it had some academia, scripture, and fellowship. I am starving for all of the above.”

To access this resource, visit thirdmill.org/Hebrews.

In a time when online learning is more important than we could have imagined just a few months ago, thank you for bringing Thirdmill to the world. To help us continue distributing theological education, visit thirdmill.org/donate.

FROM THE FIELD

We enjoy Thirdmill study at home and in small Bible studies. What a blessing to be able to study good materials through you! Let us pray for one another as we are facing all kinds of challenges in this world.

-Tial and Annie Thanga
Myanmar

We are thrilled to announce a new degree-pathway partnership with Tyrannus Seminary. An associate member of the Asia Theological Association (ATA), Tyrannus is a fully online program powered by Thirdmill curriculum in both Mandarin and English. The seminary takes its name from the Book of Acts when Paul and other leaders of the newly planted church in Ephesus had to find a new place to study the Scriptures together after their break with the synagogue. They chose Tyrannus Hall (see Acts 19:9). Recently, Dr. Paul Cheng, the founder and president of the seminary, wrote Dr. Pratt to report that over 500 students had signed up for classes this spring. Rejoice with us and pray for our brothers and sisters as they study the Scriptures online.

Tyrannus.online

Our U.S. church partners have asked us to try a new format for small group Bible studies. We call it our “Study at Home” series. With the onset of social distancing requirements, we are providing an accessible online study.

TYRANNUS SEMINARY IN KUALA LUMPUR

Dr. Paul Cheng and Dr. Richard Pratt celebrate associate membership status in Asia Theological Association

The COVID-19 pandemic has underscored how the fabric of our lives is interwoven with others.

We distribute our materials to far-away places like Malaysia, Russia, the Czech Republic, and Myanmar.

Our Director of Chinese Projects hosted a Training the Trainers seminar online for more than 70 Chinese pastors and church leaders in April. It has been encouraging to see how those who have been so greatly affected by COVID-19 are still eager to study God’s Word.

Also, right here in the U. S., our church partners have asked us to try a new format for small group Bible studies. We call it our “Study at Home” series. With the onset of social distancing requirements, we wanted to help provide an accessible online study. This first study is based on our series The Book of Hebrews. The eight sessions include a time to connect and reflect, a 15-minute video segment, discussion, and application questions. Dr. Kristi Woodall, an oncologist, joined a group and said, “I personally loved it as it had some academia, scripture, and fellowship. I am starving for all of the above.”

To access this resource, visit thirdmill.org/Hebrews.

In a time when online learning is more important than we could have imagined just a few months ago, thank you for bringing Thirdmill to the world. To help us continue distributing theological education, visit thirdmill.org/donate.

A church in China donated masks to Thirdmill for our employees and their families. What a gift!