

Course: Introduction to Theology
Series: Building Your Theology
Discussion Forum One: What is Theology?
Instructor: Dr. Richard L. Pratt, Jr.

- 1. How are orthopraxis and orthopathos different from orthodoxy? (0:10)
- 2. What are some examples of orthodoxy, orthopraxis and orthoprathos? (2:15)
- 3. Does orthopraxis add a requirement of works to the gospel? (5:45)
- 4. Which is primary: orthodoxy, orthopraxis or orthopathos? (10:15)
- 5. How do orthodoxy, orthopraxis and orthopathos interrelate? (12:00)
- 6. What is a web of multiple reciprocities? (16:20)
- 7. How can we balance orthodoxy, orthopraxis and orthopathos? (19:50)
- 8. How can we resolve tensions between orthodoxy, orthopraxis and orthopathos? (28:55)
- 9. Why is the series titled "Building Your Theology? (36:00)
- 10. Is it biblical to engage in formal theology? (40:00)
- 11. Do the academic and life orientations toward theology influence each other? (46:25)
- 12. How can we broaden our orientation toward theology? (51:00)
- 13. Is formal theology the best way to discover truth? (56:00)
- 14. Should we evaluate general revelation in terms of orthodoxy, orthopraxis and orthopathos? (1:02:30)
- 15. Do you have to be smart to do theology? (1:06:05)
- 16. How do biblical studies, history and theology, and practical theology interrelate? (1:16:45)
- 17. Why do seminaries have a hard time teaching practical theology? (1:22:45)